Presidential Dos and Don'ts

Do Be: Enthusiastic, Positive and Your Unit Leader

DO prepare an agenda for each meeting.

DON'T just come to the meeting, unprepared, full of excuses.

DO read and study all of the governing documents of your organization.

DON'T ask a past officer what has usually been done. You may be continuing to repeat a mistake.

DO know the extent of your authority as stated in the bylaws.

DON'T act as though you are all-powerful or make decisions for the organization.

DO learn some parliamentary procedure rules.

DON'T just hope that everything will turn out okay at the meeting.

DO start the meeting on time.

DON'T wait until your officers or other key members arrive.

DO refer to yourself in the third person, or your President, or the Chair.

DON'T say "I – I – I .

DO stay impartial; but vote when the vote is by ballot, or when the result will be affected by your vote.

DON'T vote with the members when the vote is by voice.

DO stand when addressing the assembly and when taking a vote.

DON'T stand during the reading of the minutes, financial report and other committee reports or during debate.

DO keep all debate directed to the chair or through the chair.

DON'T permit discussion between members.

DO keep debate germane, that is, pertinent to the pending question.

DON'T allow remarks unrelated to the pending question.

DO assist the members in formulating a motion.

DON'T state a motion when you can improve it before stating it. The members will appreciate your assistance.

DO state all motions clearly after seconding and before taking the vote.

DON'T let members be confused about the motion.

DO expedite the meeting by using general consent when there is no opposition.

DON'T use valuable time by asking the members to make routine motions.

DO delegate responsibility to other officers and committee chairs.

DON'T do everything yourself because members are willing to do their part.

DO keep the meetings friendly and as informal as possible.

DON'T have meetings so stiff that members wish they had stayed at home.

DO enjoy the experience and learn.

DON'T complain about all of the work you have to do.

Ten Top Tips for Local Unit Presidents

1. Don't be a one day a month president. Give TRTA a priority in your year as president.
2. Make sure that you provide ample opportunities to include the spouses. Spouses have a significant influence on the member.
3. Organize your committees before you take office in July. If you don't, you will be doing September's work in January.
4. Create an atmosphere of fun at your meetings so that people want to come and bring guests.
5. Give new members a job quickly. Don't let them sit there and wonder why they joined TRTA. Make your three newest members your membership committee and rotate the senior member off each time they find a new member.
6. People don't join only for camaraderie. Have significant service projects throughout the year involving different people.
7. Ask your members what they want from TRTA and how they would improve your unit.
8. Work with other Local Unit Presidents in your District. They may have solutions for problems you face or have good ideas you have not considered.
9. Talk to your elected officials and make sure they know about TRTA. Talk at schools "in service" meetings in August. Even five or ten minutes will help.
10. Your Local Unit will only be as enthusiastic as you are. Are you transmitting the appropriate image?

Your role as President can be a wonderful opportunity or a complete drudgery. It's still going to last 12 months so why not make it an opportunity for yourself to grow and meet dozens of terrific people you would never have met otherwise.

Local Unit Committee Chair Selection

It is very important that you appoint dependable, hardworking, and enthusiastic committee chairs. They will be responsible for communicating with district chairs and providing information when needed to local unit meetings. They will need to attend training at the Spring Leadership Development Conference in your district. Local unit past presidents can help provide candidates.

The Legislative Chair must be able to communicate with your district chair and TRTA State Legislative Committee member from your district. This person must be able to distribute information on legislative issues to the members quickly, especially when the Legislature is in session. Computer skills are a must for the Legislative Chair.

The Community Volunteer Service Chair is in charge of collecting volunteer hours and reporting them to the District TRTA Community Volunteer Service Committee Chair. This may involve contacting local members who are not at meetings. EVERY chair should have email in order to receive information from state committees to share with your local members.

The Healthy Living Chair is in charge of collecting reports on healthy meetings to the District TRTA Health Care Committee Chair. This chair may collect various health related articles and information to be shared via email or a few copies at each meeting. A health-related program should be scheduled. EVERY chair should have email in order to receive information from state committees to share with your local members.

The Retirement Education Chair needs to sponsor a seminar or partnering with another local unit to sponsor a seminar or some type of retirement activity for local retiring school personnel. EVERY chair should have email in order to receive information from state committees to share with your local members.

The Informative and Protective Services Chair is a resource person and should share the tip provided by the state committee via email each month. A few copies should be at each meeting for those not receiving email. EVERY chair should have email in order to receive information from state committees to share with your local members.

The Member Benefits Chair needs to highlight one of the benefits included in the TRTA Member Benefits Program via email and/or write a description of a benefit for their local unit newsletter. EVERY chair should have email in order to receive information from state committees to share with your local members.

The Historian is in charge of collecting information about the local unit and compiling the local unit scrapbook, as well as sending information for the State Scrapbook. This person should be interested in taking pictures at all meetings. EVERY chair should have email in order to receive information from state committees to share with your local members.

The Parliamentarian should be knowledgeable of Robert's Rules of Order to help the president in conducting meetings. The local unit bylaws should be reviewed each year and revised and updated, if needed. If there are changes in the local unit bylaws, a new copy should be provided to each local unit member, possibly by including the bylaws in the yearbook.

An effective local committee chair: Passes on all information as it is received from the district chair to ensure all local members are included in TRTA Communication.

Leadership in Building Strong Local Units

Warning Signs of Local Unit Weakness:

- Decrease in membership
- Decrease in attendance
- Difficulty in finding officers and chairs
- Declining participation in TRTA projects (Children's Book Project, Volunteerism, Project Healthy Living, Scholarships and Grants)
- Declining program offerings
- Declining social events
- Declining over all enthusiasm

Check List for Assistance and Evaluation

- A. Start with a "Self-Assessment" or Local Unit Self-Check which is found in the Local Unit Support resource guide (pages 3-5).
 - Consider the Chinese proverb: "If we don't change the direction we are headed, we will end up where we are going."
 - Do you have committee reports at meetings, do you have an agenda, do you use your Executive Board meetings for planning, do your members participate in the Project Healthy Living program, do you have social activities, do you have or share in conducting a Retirement Education Event, is your Unit active in communicating with Legislators, does your Unit have a Membership Recruitment plan, do you welcome and involve new members?
- B. Involve your district officers and use their support.
- C. Invite your district officers to attend your meeting and have them give feedback.
- D. Have your district officers attend an Executive Board Meeting and brainstorm ideas for building your unit.
- E. Schedule a "Save Our Local Unit Meeting" at a time when most Local Unit members can participate. Prepare specific questions in advance.
 - For example, ask the members what they like about the Unit meetings and social gatherings, ask how the Unit can improve. Ask if day and time of meetings address the needs of the majority of members. Ask if programs create interest so the members want to come to meetings.
 - Consider: are the programs intellectually stimulating, are they enjoyable and useful, did the program deliver something that the members benefited from? Look at attendance when a terrific program was given. Are the meetings too long, are the committee reports too long and rambling? Are the social gatherings enjoyable and worthwhile? Create an environment where all opinions are heard; all comments are welcome. THINK OUTSIDE THE BOX!
- F. Craft a "Self-Improvement and Growth Plan" from the suggestions generated at the meeting and put it into action. It has been said: "People don't plan to fail...they fail to plan."
- G. Contact the state Local Unit Support Committee for resource materials.

Parliamentary Pointers

ACCLAMATION

A motion to elect “by acclamation” is “out of order” if other members wish to make additional nominations. When there are no additional nominations to be made, a motion “to close” requires a second and a 2/3 vote and would thus be a waste of the Assembly’s time. If you have no other nominations, just remain silent.

ADJOURNMENT

A formal motion is NOT necessary. The presiding officer may say, “If there is no further business, the meeting is adjourned.”

CHAIR

Refers to person presiding or the place from which that person is presiding.

MAJORITY

More than half of the votes cast. (Abstentions do not count.)

MINUTES

Say “The secretary can read the printed minutes (or the minutes can be sent electronically) of the _____ (date) meeting.” After reading...”You’ve heard the reading of the minutes, are there any corrections?” Pause. “The minutes are approved as read (or as corrected).” A formal motion is not necessary.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Do NOT use the term “Old Business” which was business on previous meeting’s agenda, which was not completed, or business, which was referred to present meeting. (President should never ask! Check minutes of previous meetings or ask secretary.)

PREVIOUS QUESTION

This motion, if adopted, stops debate and causes an immediate vote on the pending motion. Previous Question requires a second, cannot be debated and a two-thirds vote for adoption.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED

Is no longer used. Person reporting should just sign name to report.

SAME SIGN/VOTING

Do NOT use “Same Sign”. Instead say “Those in favor say ‘aye.’ Those opposed, say ‘no’.” (Not same sign)

SAY “I MOVE THAT”

Never say, “I so move.” State the entire motion so Assembly will know what the question is. Have maker write the motion, particularly if it is a long or complicated one.

TABLE

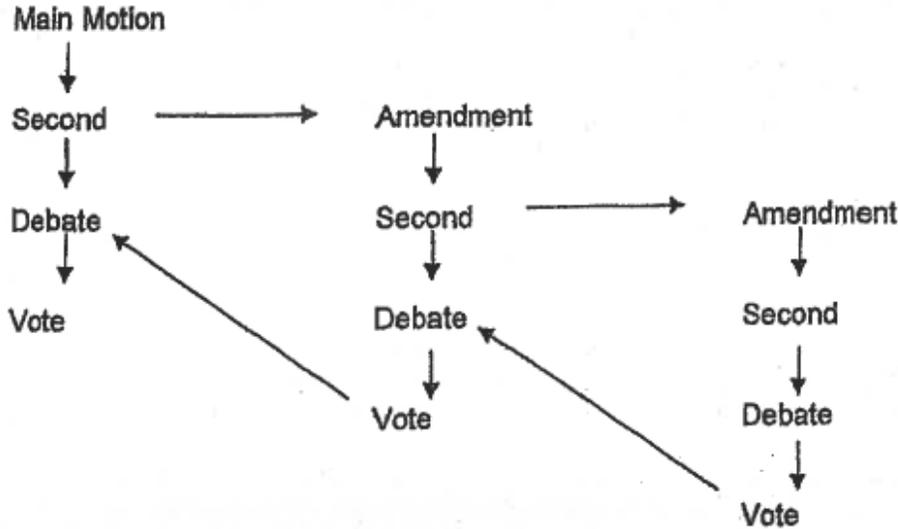

The motion to “Lay on the Table” should only be used in an emergency (Example: If an unexpected VIP enters the hall and the Assembly wishes to hear from him/her). Following emergency, the motion is “Taken from the Table.”

TREASURER’S REPORT

“You have heard the Treasurer’s Report. Are there questions?” Pause “The Treasurer’s Report will be filed for audit.” (No motion... Will be approved when Audit report is approved.)

Main Motion

Several things can happen between introducing a Main Motion and its disposal. Even so, this diagram will provide guidance for the presiding officer to handle most of the motions that come before a meeting body.

Second not required

Blanks, filling
 Division of assembly

Do You Know the Difference?

Defined Benefit vs. Defined Contribution

Do you know the difference between a defined benefit retirement plan and a defined contribution plan? Public school personnel in Texas participate in a defined benefit (DB) program. The DB plan is very important for members of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas (TRS), as our annuities are guaranteed for life by the Texas Constitution. Our annuities are determined by number of years of service, age at retirement, highest salary and a 2.3 multiplier. The state of Texas is required to contribute a minimum of 6% and a maximum of 10% of the active aggregate teacher payroll to the pension fund (the state contribution is 6.8% for 2016 and 2017). Active employees now pay 7.7% of their salaries into the fund, an amount that increased gradually from 6.4% in 2014. TRS manages the plan, invests the funds and pays out benefits to annuitants monthly.

There are groups that want to eliminate defined benefit programs and replace them with defined contribution (DC) plans. DC plans require individuals to make investment and contribution decisions. Unlike DB plans, they are portable from job to job; however, this encourages job transition that is very costly for the workforce, especially public education. The employee must ride the ups and downs of the market. This shifts the responsibility onto retirees, who can outlive the benefits they receive or be faced with unpredictable retirement income. In contrast, the DB plan assures a lifetime annuity. It is especially important for TRS to remain a defined benefit program as most Texas public school districts are not coordinated with Social Security, and TRS serves as their only form of retirement security.

DB vs. DC: Highlights

	DB	DC
Guaranteed for life	Yes	No
Managed by TRS investment professionals	Yes	No
Selling point for recruiting and retaining teachers	Yes	No
Generates a predictable, steady retirement income	Yes	No
Sole guaranteed income for most Texas retirees	Yes	No
Allows retirement on predetermined and predictable formula	Yes	No
Rewards years of service and job stability	Yes	No
Provides secure disability and survivor benefits based on the individual's years of service and established formula	Yes	No
